

THE TIMES

Thursday 14 June 2018

DOCTORS' MISTAKES

Sir, Recent government figures show that the number of hospital care deaths each year attributed to medical negligence over the past 40 years has risen from zero to hundreds. Such figures are difficult to interpret but reflect the success of access to justice and show public demand for independent robust clinical scrutiny and medical accountability.

Dr Anthony Barton

Solicitor, Medical Negligence Team