

THE TIMES | Wednesday April 6 2016

Medical mistakes

Sir, Matthew Syed omits to mention clinical scrutiny by negligence litigation. Access to justice is available to all, free at the point of need, and privately funded. The legal process is independent, robust and consistent, and does not defer to any doctor's ego.

DR ANTHONY BARTON

Solicitor and former coroner, and joint editor, Clinical Negligence