“There are certain law books that stand out as in a class of their own and... Clinical Negligence stands tall among them... I would highly recommend this book for those practising in this area. It is high quality, clear and comprehensive and will no doubt prove an invaluable source of reference. Five stars on all counts.” Tim Kevan, PIBULJ.COM (of the previous edition)

This book remains the only text of its kind to cover both the medical and legal aspects of medical negligence. Written by a team of more than 60 experts, it continues to provide the most comprehensive and authoritative guidance on all aspects of clinical negligence claims, from bringing an action for damages to presenting expert evidence in court. It also includes detailed consideration of funding and cost implications. Those needing clear guidance to make the best possible preparations for an action will find all they need here.

The new sixth edition has been fully revised and restructured, including new chapters on the future of clinical negligence litigation, cardiology, gynaecology, obstetrics, haematology, and coverage and analysis of recent key cases such as:

- Williams v Bermuda Hospitals [2016] UKPC 4 (causation)
- R (on the application of Maughan) v HM Senior Coroner for Oxfordshire [2020] UKSC 46 (suicide in inquests)
- Darnley v Croydon Health Authority [2018] UKSC 50 (duty of care owed by receptionist)
- ABC v St George's Hospital [2020] EWHC 455 (Huntington's chorea confidentiality)
- Swift v Carpenter [2020] EWCA Civ 1295 (future accommodation costs)

About the authors

Dr Michael Powers KC has over 40 years' experience in all areas of medico-legal practice in England and several other common law jurisdictions, and extensive coronial experience. He is a Bencher of Lincoln's Inn (1998) where he is an advocacy Tutor Trainer. As a strong supporter of the NHS, Dr Powers advocates constant attention to standards of practice and an open system of accountability when things go wrong. Before coming to the Bar, he held hospital appointments in a number of specialties including obstetrics and anaesthesia. He remains a registered Medical Practitioner and is a lead examiner for Faculty of Forensic and Legal Medicine of the Royal College of Physicians, of which he is an elected Fellow.

Dr Anthony Barton is a solicitor and medical practitioner. He has experience as a coroner in London. He has been a Parliamentary adviser on clinical negligence. He has written and lectured widely on medicolegal topics including clinical negligence, access to justice, compensation, coronial law, and product liability. Formerly with a leading City specialist practice, he is joint proprietor of Medical Negligence Team Law, a law firm which specialises in clinical negligence claims.
